USGS Knowledge Management Framework Components & Relationships

USGS Knowledge Management Framework (KMF) consists of Information & Knowledge Resources are created & managed using

Function-specific Tools & Services (KM-Toolkit) are accessed & shared via

Multi-purpose Websites & Services organized as including personal & community tools for Document Management (DM) System including document management workflow development bookmark sharing

Other "Knowledgebases" (KBs) community-contributed & shared resources citation management ontology development community working documents

"semantic resources" gazetteers ontologies such as documentation glossaries thesauri citations presentations web links metadata repositories (RMR) web services registries & catalogs databases

mark up language ( ML ) standards scholarly articles & studies manuals & technical instructions other reports, studies, etc.

communication & outreach materials metadata standards

"best practices" guides tutorials

FAQs

tutorialing

Modified 08 April 2011 from CDI version of 15 September 2010)